

It's Panto time again... Oh yes it is!

We may have changed our name, but we continue our fine tradition of high quality fun filled family pantomimes.

This time we present "Babes in the Wood"

27th January - 3rd February 2018.

This year's pantomime is going to be a treat for the entire family. Written by the kings of panto, Keith Marsden and Geoffrey Rundle, we once again take you to the land of make-believe.

Babes in the Wood promises to be a fresh and fun family pantomime full of well loved songs and tradition. Continuing previous year's wonderful productions, this year the pantomime will again be directed by Peter Whitley and Judith Chapman. Judith will also be choreographing the cast of 50 people, and with musical direction from Geoff Garrett - completes the winning team!

Leading the talented company is Leanne Watson as Maid Marion and Fiona Spencer as Robin Hood with Leah Ogrizovic as the Fairy. Mark Hutchinson will exchange the cheers for boos this year as the villain Sir Casper (The Sherriff of Nottingham). Philip Smith, Danny Duckworth and Bailey Roper will keep you laughing as Muddles and the bumbling robbers Dan & Desmond. Dean Harness will be adding glamour as our Schoolmistress Dame, Penelope Penwiper.

We once again have a magnificent line-up of amazing dancers and adorable kiddies including four fabulous "Babes", and a great supporting cast too!

If there is one pantomime you see this year then it has to be Babes in the Wood!
