

Keighley Musical Theatre Company
proudly presents
Our 2019 Musical - Oliver!

Member / Group Priority Booking Form

Dear Member / Group Organiser

Absent from Keighley for many years, we are bringing back this popular family favourite. Based on the Dickens Novel, this show will engage you with it's bleakness and drama, while delighting everyone with its outstanding musical numbers.

You will remember "Food, Glorious Food", "I'd Do Anything", "Consider Yourself", "Who Will Buy" and "Reviewing the Situation" - just some of the classic musical theatre numbers in this show.

We have a talented cast lined up for you, including an amazing kids chorus with superbly talented lead characters. We are especially pleased to have been able to cast the chorus with boys, just as the story was intended, and we hope that these boys enjoy their time and return for future shows!

You may know some "old favourites", but we once again bring some brilliant new-to-KMTC performers too!

Oliver and Dodger are played by the talented Eddie Chester and Harvey Dewhurst. They lead their workhouse cast (Jake Holmes, Alfie Blacka, Daniel Hart, Alfie Greenwood, Elliott Hale, Noah Garbutt, Jack Woolford, Oliver Scott-Grice, Thomas Devlin, Max Hudson, Findlay Squires, Max Hibbert, Dylan Dean, Gianluca Jennings)

Other KMTC regulars include Peter Whitley (Fagin), Jonny Tate (Bill Sykes), Fiona Spencer (Nancy) Mark Brown (Mr Sowerberry) Phoenix Hillier (Mrs Sowerberry).

We also welcome a number of talented actors, all experienced, but their first time with KMTC - including Harriett Bannister, Lee Wallace, Neil Holt and many more.

The winning production team that brought you Hairspray last year are back again - Jamesine Cundell-Walker is Director and the choreography is provided by Judith Chapman. A full orchestra led by John Sandland will reproduce the amazing score.

We can promise you an entertaining night out at the theatre!

Book early to avoid disappointment!
